QUESTION

When it comes to completion of community orders, what does 'successfully completed' actually mean in this context?

ANSWER

As per the report on government services, 'Completion of community service orders is defined as the percentage of community correction orders completed during a year that were not breached for failure to meet the requirements or because further offences were committed. Order requirement may involve restrictions on the offender's liberty as with home detention. A requirement to undertake community work or other specified activities such as drug or alcohol programs. Regularly attending a community correction centre as part of supervision requirements or other conditions.'
