To the Committee Members:

I totally reject and oppose the legalisation of VAD (i.e. assisting someone to suicide) in the NT.

Voluntary Assisted Suicide is in fact the murder of an innocent person, and God's command is "you shall not commit murder"; each person is made in the image of God and therefore each life is precious no matter how small, young, old, sick or disabled.

God's law has been written into Australian and NT legislation to protect the innocent and subsequently it is a role of our Government to therefore safeguard the lives of the innocent - not to take their lives!

It is a dangerous and deadly thing to give the authority to the Government to kill an innocent person!

A brief look through history and even in some other countries to the present day makes this terrifyingly clear!

I entreat you to not proceed with drafting instructions to the Attorney-General.

I also request that you please notify me of the date, time and venue for the face-to-face consultation planned for Alice Springs.

Yours sincerely
Caroline Auld
