Number:	5.9
Question:	I understand a Department of Local Government employee had a $3500 bill for one month usage of a government supplied iPad. Can I please be provided

Answer:

The situation was investigated when the monthly invoice was received, revealing the data plan associated with the device had been removed without authorisation by the service provider resulting in billing occurring at casual usage rates.

any information that details the correction of that figure from the department?

The service provider subsequently advised in a Completion Notice dated 16 June 2011 that the correct data plan had been re-enabled as at 16 May 2011.

Telstra will adjust the next invoice.
