The form the Notice will take will be to express that: The Assembly, pursuant to section 24(1)(a) of the Electoral Act 2004,¹⁵ expresses that the Government no longer possesses the confidence of the Assembly. Any reasons may be expressed in the remainder of the motion.

STANDING ORDER 210

Procedures to be followed by Assembly Committees for the Protection of Witnesses

Unless otherwise ordered the following procedures will be followed by Committees of the Assembly when dealing with witnesses and prospective witnesses:

- (1) a witness will be invited to attend a Committee meeting to give evidence: A witness will be summoned to appear (whether or not the witness was previously invited to appear) only where the Committee has made a decision that the circumstances warrant the issue of a summons.
- (2) where the Committee desires that a witness produce documents relevant to the Committee's inquiry, the witness will be invited to do so, and an order that documents be produced will be made (whether or not an invitation to produce documents has previously been made) only where the Committee has made a decision that the circumstances warrant such an order.
- (3) a witness will be given reasonable notice of a meeting at which the witness is to appear, and supplied with a copy of the Committee's terms of reference, a statement of the matters expected to be dealt with during the witness's appearance, and a copy of these procedures: where appropriate, a witness may be supplied with a transcript of relevant evidence already taken.

- (4) a witness will be given an opportunity to make a submission in writing before appearing to give oral evidence.
- (5) reasonable opportunity must be available for a witness to raise any matters of concern to the witness relating to the witness's submission or the evidence the witness is to give before the witness appears at a meeting.
- (6) a witness will have reasonable access to any documents that the witness has produced to the Committee.
- (7) a witness will be offered, before giving evidence, the opportunity to make application, before or during the hearing of the witness's evidence, for any or all of the witness's evidence to be heard in private session, and will be invited to give reasons for any such application. If the application is not granted, the witness will be notified of reasons for that decision.
- (8) the Committee may table in the Assembly or publish evidence given in private session after consideration of the circumstances and deliberating that the circumstances are so extraordinary as to warrant such disclosure. Before giving any evidence in private session, a witness will be informed that it is within the power of the Committee to authorise publication of such evidence and that the Assembly also has the power to order the production and publication of such evidence.
- (9) a Member, in a protest or dissent added to a report, may not disclose evidence taken in camera unless so authorised by the Committee.
- (10) should the Committee consider it essential that evidence given or information received in private session is published or that it is essential that such evidence or information be included in the Committee's report the Chairman or Secretary of the Committee must make every effort to discuss the matter with the relevant witness in an effort to minimise any potential damage to the witness which may flow from that publication or usage.
- (11) the Chairman will take care to ensure that all questions put to witnesses are relevant to the Committee's inquiry and that the information sought by those questions is necessary for the purpose of that inquiry. Where a Member of the Committee requests discussion of a ruling of the Chairman on this matter, the Committee will deliberate in private session and determine whether any question which is the subject of the ruling is to be permitted.
- (12) where a witness objects to answering any question put to the witness on any ground, including the ground that the question is not relevant or that the answer may incriminate the witness, the witness will be invited to state the ground upon which objection to answering the question is taken. Unless the Committee determines immediately that the question should not be pressed, the Committee will then consider in private session whether it will insist upon an answer to the question, having regard to the relevance of the question to the Committee's inquiry and the importance to the inquiry of the information sought by the question: If the Committee determines that it requires an answer to the question, the witness will be informed of that determination and the reasons for the determination, and will be required to answer the question only in private session, unless the Committee determines that it is essential to the Committee's inquiry that the question be answered in public session; and where a witness declines to answer a question to which the Committee has required an answer, the Committee will report the facts to the Assembly.

- (13) where a Committee has reason to believe that evidence about to be given may reflect adversely on a person, the Committee will give consideration to hearing that evidence in private session.
- (14) where a witness gives evidence reflecting adversely on a person and the Committee is not satisfied that that evidence is relevant to the Committee's inquiry, the Committee will give consideration to expunging that evidence from the transcript of evidence, and to forbidding the publication of that evidence.
- (15) where evidence is given which reflects adversely on a person and action of the kind referred to in paragraph (14) is not taken in respect of the evidence, the Committee will provide reasonable opportunity for that person to have access to that evidence and to respond to that evidence by written submission and appearance before the Committee.
- (16) a witness may make application to be accompanied by counsel and to consult counsel in the course of a meeting at which the witness appears. In considering such an application, the Committee will have regard to the need for the witness to be accompanied by counsel to ensure the proper protection of the witness. If an application is not granted, the witness will be notified of reasons for that decision.
- (17) a witness accompanied by counsel will be given reasonable opportunity to consult counsel during a meeting at which the witness appears.
- (18) an officer of a department of the Territory or of the Commonwealth may not be asked to give opinions on matters of policy and be given reasonable opportunity to refer questions asked of the officer to superior officers or to a Minister.
- (19) reasonable opportunity will be afforded to witnesses to make corrections of errors of transcription in the transcript of their evidence and to put before the Committee additional material supplementary to their evidence, and
- (20) where the Committee has any reason to believe that any person has been improperly influenced in respect of evidence which may be given before the Committee, or has been subjected to or threatened with any penalty or injury in respect of any evidence given, the Committee will take all reasonable steps to ascertain the facts of the matter. On the first day of the session of the Assembly after prorogation, Members assemble at the time appointed by the Administrator²⁷, the Clerk reads the Notice calling the Assembly together and the Assembly proceedings follow the routine in Standing Order 211 where relevant.

STANDING ORDER 214

Election of a Speaker

The election of a Speaker will be conducted in the following manner.

- (1) At the opening of an Assembly, after the Members have been sworn in or made an affirmation or at any time the office of Speaker is vacant then an election will be conducted by the Clerk acting as Chair.
- (2) A Member will be called by the Clerk to nominate a Member who is present to be elected as Speaker by saying; I nominate the Member for X to be the Speaker of this Assembly.
- (3) The motion must be seconded.
- (4) The Clerk will ascertain if the nominee accepts the nomination or not.
- (5) The Clerk then asks is there any further proposal? If there is no further proposal, the Clerk will say the time for proposals has expired. No Member may then address the Assembly or propose any other Member, and the Clerk will, without a question being put, declare the Member so proposed and seconded to have been elected as Speaker, and the Member will then be conducted to the Chair by their proposer and seconder, and take the Chair of the Assembly as Speaker.
- (6) If more than one Member is proposed the Clerk will, after the second proposal and after each subsequent proposal (if any) is made and seconded, ask is there any further proposal?, and if there is no further proposal the Clerk will say the time for proposals has expired.
- (7) When the time for proposals has expired, Members may debate the nominations.
- (8) No Member may speak for more than five minutes.

²⁷ Sections 22 & 63 Northern Territory \(Self-Government\) Act 1978 \(Cth\). The Administrator appoints session times by notice published in the Government Gazette

- (9) At any time during the debate a motion may be moved that the question be put. The Clerk will then put the question, without debate. In the event of the numbers being equal, the question is decided in the negative. Upon the carrying of the question or upon the cessation of the debate otherwise, the election proceeds.
- (10) Before the Assembly proceeds to a ballot the bells must be rung for three minutes.
- (11) Each Member present will deliver to the Clerk a ballot paper in writing, containing the name of the candidate for whom he/she votes and the votes will be counted by the Clerks at the Table; and the candidate who has the greater number of votes and the majority of the votes of Members present will be the Speaker and conducted to the Chair.
- (12) The Member who has the greatest number of votes is elected Speaker, provided it is a majority of the votes of the Members present; but if no candidate has a majority, the name of the candidate having the least number of votes will be excluded from subsequent ballots, and a fresh ballot must take place; and this will be done as often as necessary, until one candidate is declared to be elected as Speaker by a majority of Members present.
- (13) If at any ballot it is impossible by reason of an equality of votes to determine which name is excluded from subsequent ballots, a special ballot must take place at which there is submitted only the names of those candidates who have received equal votes. At a special ballot each Member will write on their ballot paper only the name of the candidate they wish to retain. The candidate whose name appears upon the least number of ballot papers is excluded from subsequent ballots.
- (14) At any time after the result of the first ballot is declared, but before the commencement of the second or subsequent ballot, a candidate may withdraw from the election which proceeds as if they had not been nominated.
- (15) If by reason of an equality of votes a ballot or special ballot is rendered inconclusive; the Clerk declares so and unless by a withdrawal another ballot or special ballot is rendered unnecessary, causes another ballot or special ballot to be taken. If after the counting of votes the equality continues the Clerk declares so. The meeting is then suspended for 30 minutes and when the Assembly reassembles the votes are taken again, unless this is rendered unnecessary by a withdrawal.
- (16) In the event of there still being an equality of votes, the Clerk declares such to be the case, and determines by lot which of the candidates, having the same number of votes, is withdrawn, as though that Member had obtained the lesser number of votes.
- (17) Whenever at any stage a withdrawal leaves only one candidate remaining they are declared elected as Speaker and conducted to the Chair.
- (18) Having been conducted to the Chair, the Member elected gives their acknowledgment to the Assembly for the honour conferred and sits in the Chair and the Mace (which until then lay under the Table) is now laid upon the Table.

STANDING ORDER 215

Election of Deputy Speaker

At the commencement of each Assembly, or whenever the office becomes vacant by virtue of a previous Deputy Speaker resigning by informing the Speaker, or by being appointed to Ministerial office pursuant to s.37 of the Northern Territory (Self-Government) Act 1978,²⁸ a Member who is not a Minister will be elected by the Assembly to be the Deputy Speaker.

²⁸ Section 37 Northern Territory \(Self-Government\) Act 1978 \(Cth\)

The Deputy Speaker is the Acting Speaker at any time the Speaker is absent or unable to perform the function of the Speaker in accordance with section 25 of the Northern Territory (Self-Government) Act 1978.²⁹

The Deputy Speaker is elected in the following manner:

- (1) A motion is moved, without notice, that a Member be elected Deputy Speaker of this Assembly, and the motion must be seconded.
- (2) The Speaker then asks if there is any further motion and, if there is not, will say that the time for motions has expired. No member may then address the Assembly or move any motion for the election of a Member as Deputy Speaker, and the Speaker, without question put, will declare the Member named in the motion to have been elected Deputy Speaker.
- (3) If more than one motion for the election of the Deputy Speaker is moved and seconded, the Speaker will, after the second motion and after each subsequent motion (if any), ask if there is any further motion and, if there is not, will say that the time for motions has expired.
- (4) When the time for motions has expired, debate may ensue, but it must be relevant to the election.
- (5) No Member may speak for more than five minutes.
- (6) At any time during the debate, a motion without notice may be moved by a Member rising in their place, and whether any Member is addressing the Assembly or not, "that the question be now put", the question is then put and decided without amendment or debate.
- (7) Upon the carrying of the question "that the question be now put", or upon the cessation of the debate otherwise, the election of the Deputy Speaker proceeds as provided in this Standing Order.
- (8) Before the Assembly proceeds to a ballot, the bells must be rung for three minutes.
- (9) When only two motions for the election of Deputy Speaker are moved and seconded, each Member present delivers to the Clerk a ballot paper in writing, containing the name of the Member named in one or other of the motions for whom they vote, and the votes are counted by the Clerks at the Table; and the Member who has the greater number of votes is the Deputy Speaker.
- (10) When more than two motions for the election of Deputy Speaker are moved and seconded, the votes are taken in the same manner, and the Member who has the greatest number of votes is the Deputy Speaker, provided they have a majority of votes of the Members present; but if no Member has such majority, the name of the Member having the least number of votes is excluded from subsequent ballots, and a fresh ballot takes place; and this is done as often as necessary until one Member has a majority of votes of Members present when they become Deputy Speaker.
- (11) If, after any ballot in which the names of only two Members are submitted, there is an equality of votes, the Speaker must exercise their casting vote and the Member for whom the casting vote is given becomes the Deputy Speaker.

²⁹ Section 25 Northern Territory \(Self-Government\) Act 1978 \(Cth\)

- (12) If, after any ballot in which the names of more than two Members are submitted, it is impossible by reason of an equality of votes to determine which name will be excluded from subsequent ballots:
- (a) if there is an equality of votes for two Members, the Speaker exercises their casting vote and the name of the Member for whom the casting vote is not given is excluded from subsequent ballots
 - (b) if there is an equality of votes for more than two Members, a special ballot takes place at which there are submitted only the names of those Members who have received equal votes and in which case each Member will write on their ballot paper only the names of the Members they wish to retain. The name of the Member who receives the least number of votes will be excluded from subsequent ballots. If, by reason of a continued equality of votes, the special ballot is inconclusive, then, unless a name is withdrawn, the sitting is suspended for 30 minutes. When the meeting is resumed, the votes are taken again unless this is rendered unnecessary by a withdrawal, and
 - (c) in the event of there still being an equality of votes, the Speaker will declare such to be the case and determine by lot which of the candidates having the same number of votes is withdrawn, as if that Member had the least number of votes.
- (13) At any time after the result of the first ballot is declared, but before the commencement of any subsequent ballot, a Member whose name was submitted in the first ballot may withdraw and all further proceedings will take place as if a motion for their election as Deputy Speaker had not been moved.
- (14) When a withdrawal leaves only one Member in respect of whom a motion for election as Deputy Speaker is before the Assembly, that Member is declared to have been elected Deputy Speaker.
