How can we consider ourselves an advanced and humane society when we have passed VAD legislation in every state in Australia that is no help for those in advanced old age who are not terminally ill but suffering unbearably all the same and are desperate to go for their forever rest to be at peace free from pain and suffering . Let us hope here in the NT, the first jurisdiction to have VAD legislation in Australia before that right was taken away thanks to the federal govt all those years ago will again be the leading light in end-of-life matters by passing a more inclusive VAD legislation that can offer a compassionate option for those not terminally ill but still desperate to be where there is no more pain and suffering .

Sincerely,

Poh Lim.
