Question:

In last year's Budget Paper No. 3, in the summary for legal Services, details were provided of total operating expenses less depreciation, a DCIS service charge use of cash balance and other non-cash items. Why were those items not detailed in this year's summary?

Answer:

These tables are prepared by Treasury and Treasury does not report to to the detail reported in 2004-05, but those figures are all rolled up into the figure that you see in the current 2005-06. Therefore, the detail does not appear in 2005-06 but the output appropriation does appear as a total line.
