Subject: Rate of re-advertisement for Special Measures appointments

QUESTION:

How many positions, as referred to in the question above, were re-advertised within six months of the initial appointment?

ANSWER:

The rate of re-advertisement for Special Measures appointments cannot be easily ascertained.

Information that is available is that of all the positions advertised with Special Measures, regardless of whether an Aboriginal applicant was successful or not, there were 64 (9%) positions re-advertised within six months of initial appointment.
