Good morning,

I am a Territory resident and I am concerned about the Territory Coordination Bill.

I was born in Darwin and have lived here almost all of my life. I do not think it is fair that the Territory Coordinator legislation should be passed. It appears the community recommendations that I agreed with were ignored. The power it gives the Chief Minister and Territory Coordinator doesn't seem fair or democratic.

Please give the public a better reason for this legislation - it doesn't make sense.

Kind regards,

Grace F
