Dear Chief Minister

INFRASTRUCTURE PROJECTS IN ALICE SPRINGS

The Alice Springs Town Council has discussed and shortlisted a priority listing of items considered of value to the Alice Springs community for consideration with the next Territory election.

Below is a brief description.

ITEM DESCRIPTION	ESTIMATED VALUE
1-A. The continuation of the existing After Hours Night Youth Patrol run by Alice Springs Town Council and Congress beyond September 2016.
1-B. The provision of an after-hours youth drop in centre for Alice Springs.
2. The upgrade of the Anzac Oval power to cater for recent infrastructure upgrades to the facility.	$350,000
3. A crematorium for Alice Springs as an adjunct to the role Alice Springs plays as the Central Australia health services centre.	$500,000
4. The construction of a community event centre/amphitheatre to cater for the growing demand for outdoor community entertainment events.	$2M

The Alice Springs Town Council is seeking a funding commitment from you for the above projects and I would be pleased to elaborate as required.

I thank you for your attention and look forward to your positive response in anticipation.

Yours sincerely

Damien Ryan
