Question: Please can we get the information on the 15 non-government organisations formally consulted in the development of the concept? Who has been consulted in the development of the concept for the neighbourhood activity centre?

Answer:

A Reference Group was established during the initial development of the concept for the Neighbourhood Activity Centres. The Reference Group first met on 16 June 2014. Membership of the Reference Group was as follows:

- Member from the Chief Minister's Youth Round Table
- Multi-Cultural Youth NT
- City of Darwin Council
- City of Palmerston Council
- Mission Australia
- YMCA of the Top End
- Anglicare NT
- YWCA of Darwin
- The Australian Red Cross
- The Smith Family
- The Northern Territory Youth Affairs Network (via Human Services Training Advisory Council)
- Scouts Australia Northern Territory Branch
- Danila Dilba Youth Services
- Volunteering SA & NT
- Department of the Chief Minister

In addition to the Reference Group, several other government and non-government organisations were consulted by the Department and by the Minister informally during the development of the concept including the Department of Education, Sanderson Middle School and youth representatives from across the Northern Territory.
