Response to Question on Notice

Question 9.8

Of the 31 investigations into inappropriate use of government technology, being computers, Internet, telephone, e-mail or otherwise; what were those investigations for? What was the breach of policy, and also, what disciplinary measures were put in place?

Response

- Of the 31 investigations 6 related to Internet usage and the remaining 25 related to email usage.
- All the investigations were initiated by requests from the relevant agency Chief Executives with information sought on the accounts and usage of identified agency employees.
- Any breach of policy and disciplinary measures taken, if any, are determined by the requesting agency and no information is known or recorded by DBE. Employee disciplinary matters are the responsibility of the employing agency.
