Ms J Carney

to Chief Minister

Advertising on Government Website

1. Chief Minister why is the Government website funded and paid for by the Territory taxpayer, containing Government press releases, maintained from the political Office of the Chief Minister.
2. Why is the website paid for by taxpayers not maintained by the Independent arm of the Department of Chief Ministers rather than the very political arm of your office, particularly since your Good Governance document promises:

“Labor will cut the waste, restricting advertising to the promotion of legitimate government needs, not de facto political advertising.”
3. Do you condone the use of this taxpayer funded website by your office and Ministers to promulgate political comment. In the interests of your Good Governance promises will you return control of this website to its proper keepers the Independent office of your department.
