Subject: Special Measures recruitment reviews

QUESTION:

How many reviews were held in relation to merit selections' finding of unsuitable applicants under special measures plans?

ANSWER:

There were 304 Aboriginal applicants that applied for a vacancy at the Department of Education during the period 1 July 2020 to 31 March 2021 that were found unsuitable and these decisions were reviewed by the OCPE as per the required process.

Of these 304 reviews, 36 were returned for further consideration by the selection panel. The final outcome of these 36 reports that were returned for further consideration cannot be easily ascertained and would require an onerous manual process to determine.
