Hello,

My name is Lisa Nunn. [REDACTED]

I am opposed to voluntary assisted dying being introduced in the Northern Territory. I am concerned about the most vulnerable people, particularly in our indigenous community. I believe the legislation will deter people already reluctant from accessing critical health care services, including palliative care. I'm also concerned about whether the scheme could be administered safely when lack of skilled professionals is a constant issue in our jurisdiction. And while I don't expect everyone to agree, I personally don't believe we have the right to take human life.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide feedback.

Regards,
Lisa Nunn
