

Estimates Committee 2004 Questions Taken On Notice

(22/06/2004 to 01/10/2004)

Date: 22/06/2004 Output: 2.0 Government Education
Sub Output:
Subject: Special Education Teachers

From: Mr Gerry Wood to Honourable Syd STIRLING
Minister for Employment Education and Training

Question: 2-4
Minister, could you say how many schools and which schools in the Darwin, Palmerston and rural areas, have special education teachers? How many schools received new special education teachers in this budget? What schools were they and have any schools in the rural area been given special education teachers in this budget?

Answer:
Answered On: 07/07/2004
Answer: RESPONSE

21 schools in the Darwin area have special education teachers. These are:

Alawa Primary School
Darwin High School
Jingili Primary School
Ludmilla Primary School
Millner Primary School
Moil Primary School
Nemarluk Special School
Nightcliff High School
Nightcliff Primary School
Anula Primary School
Casuarina Senior College
Dripstone High School
Henbury Special School
Karama Primary School
Leanyer Primary School
Malak Primary School
Nakara Primary School
Sanderson High School
Wagaman Primary School
Wanguri Primary School
Manunda Terrace Primary

14 schools in the Palmerston and Rural Cluster area have special education teachers. These are:

Bakewell Primary School
Batchelor Area School
Berry Springs Primary School
Driver Primary School
Gray Primary School
Howard Springs Primary School

Humpty Doo Primary School
Jabiru Area School
Moulden Park Primary School
Palmerston High School
Taminmin High School
Top End Group School
Woodroffe Primary School
Gunbalanya Community Education Centre

A decision on an allocation of additional Special Education Teachers to primary schools in the 2004/05 budget process is yet to be made.