You whom it may concern,

I am writing to beg that this new bill for decriminalisation of sex work be passed. I've worked under a legislative regime and it has harmed me in many ways and kept me from working safely as I see for myself. It has hindered my ability to feel safe reporting crimes, and it has caused me financial struggles from turning down work to stay compliant to unnecessary laws. I've had to register like a dog and until recently was only allowed to use head and shoulder pics for ads. These are just some of the things I've endured across Australia. It's time for decrim now.

Thank you.

Warmly,
Riley Alexander.
