Subject: Safe Places for Young People Under the Barkly Regional Deal

QUESTION:

Can you please advise where the initiative under the Barkly Regional Deal relating to finding safe places for young people is up to, and whether it has been implemented yet?

ANSWER:

The Crisis Youth Support initiative is due to be completed in Q4 2023 as per the implementation plan.

The Department of Territory Families, Housing and Communities, in consultation with the Crisis Youth Support Working Group, drafted the proposed service model and program.

The Crisis Youth Support Working Group reviewed the scope of this initiative and developed options/recommendations to put to the Governance Table in August 2023 for a decision on how to proceed.
