ANSWER:

This question requires a significant amount of effort by the agency to produce an answer that would provide the detail requested.

The Department of Housing, Local Government and Regional Services is involved in a lot of work in preparing for Estimates Committee hearings and in doing so will be collating information similar to that which has been requested.

In order to avoid unnecessary pressure and duplication by the public servants who have to provide this information, the Minister will provide answers to the questions in further detail at Estimates Committee.
