

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NORTHERN TERRITORY

WRITTEN QUESTION

Mr Guyula to the Attorney-General & Minister for Justice:

Private security

1. Where is the funding for the Public Order Response Unit in the budget? Which department has it come from? Who will be funding it going forward?
2. Where is the funding for private security patrols for Darwin CBD, the Waterfront and other locations coming from? Which department will fund it and manage it going forward?
3. What is the process for complaints to be made about conduct of private security? How accessible is this process to First Nations people & ESL speakers?
4. To date, have there been any complaints about the conduct of private security in Darwin?
5. How does incident reporting work for private security working for the government? What are they required to report in terms of incidents with the public?

ANSWER

The Public Order Response Unit does not fall within Minister Paech's responsibilities as Attorney-General and Minister for Justice. These questions should be directed to the Chief Minister.