Dear Sir/Madam, I write to express my opposition to voluntary assisted dying in the NT because it is a form of murder, whether carried out by a doctor, nurse, or by the person who dies themselves. The NT is sparsely populated and any VAD scheme could be subject to abuse, errors or lack of oversight. I don't want to see sick or elderly indigenous people too fearful to seek medical assistance in the NT because they are scared of being killed.

Yours sincerely

Paul Johnson
