Election Commitments 2012

Election Commitment	Summary of Progress	Status
Development of teachers. Through secure employment, structured mentoring, meaningful professional development and curriculum based training.	The Centre for School Leadership programs currently being delivered; book publication launched; moved to the International Graduate Centre for Education (IGCE) within the School of Education; operationally integrated into CDU.	Completed
Independent Indigenous Schools. Support conversion of department schools or Homeland Learning Centres to community managed remote Indigenous schools. Establish Community Driven Schools Support Unit (CDSSU) to assist elders committed to taking more responsibility for remote education	The Department of Education is working with communities and education providers to facilitate conversion of government remote Indigenous schools to non-government schools.	In progress
Establish a taskforce for an international education hub. Establish within Office of the Chief Minister a taskforce made up of industry and education leaders to provide a fully-costed strategic 10-year plan for an international education hub.	International Education and Training Taskforce established November 2013. Taskforce has prepared a fully costed 10-year strategic plan for international education and training hub in NT, yet to be considered by Government.	Completed
Build stronger education links and teaching Asian languages in schools including through teacher/student exchange	DoE's languages policy, international exchanges and study tours being evaluated to ensure congruence with strategic outcomes of International Education and Training Taskforce and Australian Curriculum.	In progress
Establish Alumni to record past students/teachers for students/teachers that have participated in education exchange between Indonesia and NT	An alumni of past participants in NT/Indonesia Teacher and Student Exchange Program to be developed to deepen and improve relations with Indonesia as part of a broader engagement strategy.	In progress
$2000 grant every 3 years to childcare and early learning centres to upgrade play equipment or buy toys and games for children (annual cost $150 000)	The first payments to long day care services were made at the end of June 2013.	Completed
Co-locate early learning centres within primary schools	The construction of five child and family centres is nearing completion.	In progress
Facilitate expansion of existing early learning centres. A need for more long day care child care places was identified in Alice Springs in 2012.	After meeting with stakeholders and reviewing of utilisation data for Alice Springs long day care, indications are that expansion of child care places are no longer an urgent priority.	Completed
Work with industry to improve employment conditions for	55 recipients of the NT More Early Childhood Teachers Scholarships are	Completed

Election Commitments 2012

Question

Progress on all commitments and policy announcements made within Government press releases and media statements since 1 July 2013.

Answer

Refer to the table of commitments and announcements at Attachment A.

Title	Description	Status
Review of Indigenous Education	Bruce Wilson's final report of a review of indigenous education in the Northern Territory, A Share in the Future, was released on 14 May 2014. An implementation plan is now being developed, however government has already committed to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· $40.5 million over four years to establish boarding facilities to provide bush students with improved access to secondary education;</li> <li>· developing a partnership with the Cape York Institute to develop an explicit literacy and numeracy learning program for remote and very remote schools;</li> <li>· a Territory-wide girls' engagement program, similar to the boys' Clontarf program; and</li> <li>· continued operation of the Families as First Teachers program – a jointly funded arrangement with the Commonwealth.</li> </ul>	In progress
Relocation of Northern Territory Open Education Centre	Financial support for a new purpose-built Northern Territory Open Education Centre (NTOEC) facility was announced on 23 October 2013. The announcement of the construction of the $14.6M facility included $3 million from INPEX. Budget 2014 includes $11.6M for the construction of the new NTOEC at the grounds of Darwin High School, Bullocky Point.	In progress
Reform of the Education Act	On 26 February 2014, Minister Chandler announced a review of the Education Act and the release of a discussion paper to seek feedback from the public. At as 30 April 2014, 41 consultation workshops involving over 260 participants had been held across the NT. 45 written submissions have also been received and, except where the author requested confidentiality, published on the DoE website. At this stage, no decisions have been made about what will be included in the new Act and key stakeholders will again be consulted when an exposure draft Bill for a new Act is released for public comment later this year. It is anticipated the new Act will commence in mid-2015.	In progress

Securing Palmerston's childcare future	As announced on 11 March 2014, the facilities of the Gray Child Care Centre and Scallywags Child Care Centre in Mouldey will be transferred from the City of Palmerston to the Territory Government in the coming months. The transfer is expected to be completed in June 2014. Operations of both centres are continuing unchanged.	In progress
Two new government schools in Palmerston	Budget 2014 includes $57M for a dedicated special school in Bellamack and a new primary school in Zuccoli. Planning and design work will begin on the Palmerston Special School in July this year with construction to commence in 2015. Stage one of Zuccoli School will commence in the 2016-17 financial year, with stage two continuing the following year.	In progress
Expansion of Rosebery Preschool	Rosebery Pre-School will be able to educate double the amount of students after a $1.2 million expansion that will see an extra 44 places, additional play facilities and improved landscaping. It is anticipated this project will be completed and opened for enrolments by the second semester 2015.	In progress
Global School Budgets	$5M has been allocated in 2014-15 to assist schools with the transition to global school budgets. It is intended that all government schools will commence operating in 2015 with a global budget.	In progress
Northern Territory Childcare Subsidy	An additional $1.7M has been allocated in the 2014-15 budget to increase the childcare subsidy by 10% and to expand eligibility for the subsidy to Family Day Care.	Complete

Question

Details and costs on all Government advertising and communications since 1 July 2013

Answer

- The cost of advertising and marketing expenditure in 2013-14 to 31 March is $143 693.
- The majority of advertising expenditure in 2013-14 was for publication of the regular School2Work News feature in the NT News. Other expenditure included the Back to School campaign (term dates and entitlement scheme), publication of NT Certificate of Education results, Indigenous Education Review consultation, and NT Board of Studies vacancies.
- Brochures and leaflets expenditure included resources for the Families as First Teachers Program (Learning Games manual), the 2014 School Calendar, the production of the department's annual report and strategic plan and the Indigenous Education Review draft report.
- Newsletter expenditure was for production of the Families as First Teachers program newsletter.
- Photography costs included photo shoots for Families as First Teachers resources and for photos of students with the highest NT Certificate of Completion results in 2013.
- Media monitoring costs were higher in 2013-14 due to media focus on education issues during periods of industrial action over the year.

Question

Full details on the impacts across all Government entities as a result of all increases in Government and Government corporation charges, prices and tariffs since August 26 2012.

Answer

Government provided additional funding of $6.2M ongoing from 2013-14 to meet in full the tariff increases for power, water and sewerage in government and non-government schools. This is all passed on to schools.

The increased tariffs lead to an increase of $418,000 in utility costs for teacher housing in remote areas in 2012 – 13 and an estimated $100,000 increase for the period 1 July 2013 – 30 March 2014.

The utility costs for DoE office accommodation for 2013-14 are estimated to be increased by $20,000.
