RE: REPORT ON OVERSEAS TRAVEL - PROMOTION OF 2018 ALICE SPRINGS
MASTERS GAMES AT 2017 WORLD MASTERS GAMES IN NEW ZEALAND

TIME SENSITIVITY

The matter is routine.

BACKGROUND

The World Masters Games (WMG) is held every four years in different parts of the world. The WMG were previously held in the Oceania region in Melbourne in 2001 and Sydney in 2009. In 2013, the WMG were held in Torino, Italy. Kansai, Japan will host the 2021 WMG.

The WMG is a multi-sport event similar to the Alice Springs Masters Games (ASMG) and attracts participants from every continent around the world.

Traditionally, other Masters Games have been successful promotional opportunities for the ASMG, as participants understand the concepts and objectives of the event.

When the WMG is held in our region, staff from the Department use the opportunity to promote the ASMG.

CURRENT SITUATION

The WMG were held in Auckland, New Zealand, from 22 to 30 April 2017 with the registration period open from 16 to 21 April 2017 at the Cloud on Queens Wharf.

The ASMG had a promotional stand at the registration centre, with a highlights video from the 2016 ASMG playing on a large television screen on a continuous loop. Flyers and promotional giveaway products such as ASMG branded pens and caps were also on offer. Approximately 2600 athletes, volunteers and support personnel stopped at the stall or took flyers and promotional material over the six days.

In the lead up to the WMG, ASMG staff contacted Tourism Central Australia (TCA) for any area-specific tourist information to provide to interested athletes. The ASMG office was advised no material was available. Realising the importance of providing such information, ASMG staff created a booklet from information gathered from the Department's Tourism NT division and TCA websites to distribute to interested athletes. 500 booklets were printed and proved to be extremely popular, an additional 2000 booklets could have been distributed.

Given the distance athletes, both nationally and internationally, are required to travel to attend the ASMG, many were keen to add on a holiday. The development of a Central Australian tourism flyer promoting the region as part of the ASMG would be useful to have in the future.

There were a number of other Masters Games stalls at the event, including:

- Australian Masters Games;
- Asia Pacific Masters Games;
- Wanganui Masters Games (New Zealand);
- Dunedin Masters Games (New Zealand);
- Pan Pacific Masters Games (Gold Coast);
- World Masters Games Association (based in Tornio, Italy); and
- Kasai 2021 World Masters Games.

More than 25 000 participants and 3000 volunteers registered for the WMG. Participants from countries in attendance who stopped at our promotional stand included:

United Kingdom	Russia	Canada	New Zealand
Japan	Korea	USA	Cambodia
Brazil	Sweden	Norway	India
Fiji	Germany	Italy	Australia
Argentina	Monaco	Mexico	Greece
Spain	China	Ukraine	Alaska
Denmark	Poland	Norway	Switzerland
Papua New Guinea

The sports that were represented included:

Archery	Athletics	Badminton	Baseball
Basketball	Canoe	Cycling	Football (Soccer)
Golf	Hockey	Lawn Bowls	Netball
Orienteering	Rowing	Rugby	Sailing
Shooting	Softball	Squash	Surf Life Saving
Swimming	Table Tennis	Tennis	Touch
Triathlon	Volleyball	Water Polo	Weightlifting

Staff manning the ASMG booth had many discussions with both Australian and overseas athletes over the six days. Below is a summary of some of the consistent themes.

International Participants

Many looked at Australia as being an attractive alternative destination for a Masters Games event. There were many questions regarding Alice Springs' geographical location, the distance, and how to get to Alice Springs from Australian capital cities.

Many of the international participants were of an older age group (50-80 years), were retired, had disposable incomes and no families to consider. It was extremely important to them to be able to participate in events with their own age group. They did not want to compete with participants who were younger, as is the case in some masters competitions where several age groups are added together to make up a competition.

The key message from these participants was that they were willing to travel and had the financial capacity and time to do so. Some advised there were many other teams that did not make it to the WMG because team numbers in the age groups were limited and the competition did not go ahead.

Australia / New Zealand Participants

There were a number of athletes who stopped at the stall who had participated in the ASMG previously. Some indicated they travel to the ASMG regularly. Others indicated the last time they attended was in either 2008 or 2010. These dates are consistent with the loss of accommodation options in Alice Springs.

Participants from Queensland (QLD) and New South Wales (NSW) were aware of the ASMG, and a number from NSW were interested in attending the 2018 ASMG. This was particularly heartening, as NSW does not have a regional Masters Games event and it has been difficult to find suitable events at which to promote the ASMG.

Western Australia (WA) is an area from which participant numbers have fallen over the past 10 years. This is partly due to the lack of flights from WA to Alice Springs and the costs involved.

A noted comment from a WA softball team that had previously participated in the ASMG was the problem of being able to book accommodation early enough. They accept the costs to participate in Alice Springs but are unable to make bookings early enough to organise the trip. This is due to accommodation providers being unwilling to accept forward bookings more than 12 months from the ASMG.

Many teams plan these trips well in advance as they have to save or undertake fundraising activities to do so. If there is no surety of accommodation, they are unlikely to receive a commitment from team members. This issue was also raised by several other teams.

The Department will work with TCA to work with accommodation providers to ensure bookings can be made more than 12 months in advance of the ASMG.

Overall, the reception from participants from around the world was excellent. A number of club presidents, key stakeholders and interested parties took multiple flyers about the ASMG back to their clubs to promote the opportunity to travel to another Masters Games event.

FINANCIAL

All costs associated with the trip were funded from within allocated budget.

CONSULTATION

The Sport and Recreation division will advise the Tourism NT division and TCA of the popularity of the area-specific tourist information with a view to having a specific brochure created.
