Department of Housing

Number: 7.9

Question: What is the average length of time, in days, that Territory Housing dwellings are vacant for?

Answer: This data was previously collated through the Tenancy Management System (TMS) and the former Asset Information System (AIS). The reporting from the Asset Management System (AMS) does not provide the detail required to answer this question without significant manual collation. Once AMS reporting is refined, the Department of Housing will be able to recommence reporting on vacate turnaround times.
