Hello Melissa

Refuel Australia only has the one small location in Alice Springs where we retail fuel and set the pump price. This is at our depot in Ghan Road. Retail fuel sales are via an unmanned site with 24 hour card sales only.

Pricing of this site is always set mid range of the Alice Springs retail prices and because of the sites location and access only sells a very small percentage of the total Alice Springs retail volume

Happy to discuss further if required.

Thank you

Ian
