Petition

Greetings,
Redesign the UNFAIR priority school enrolment zones – Alice Springs

Response

On 10 November 2020, Petition No. 1 was presented and read in the Northern Territory Legislative Assembly. The petition called for the priority school enrolment zones in Alice Springs to be redesigned.

The Department of Education is currently undertaking a review of the priority enrolment areas of all schools in Alice Springs. The review is expected to be completed by the end of Semester 1, 2021.

Consultation will occur with key stakeholders, including government school principals and other relevant Northern Territory government agencies, as well as non-government organisations, to ensure all stakeholders have an opportunity to contribute to the review.

Any changes to priority enrolment areas will be announced before the end of the 2021 school year to allow time for preparation of implementation from 2022 onwards.
