To whom this concerns,

I'm writing to express my strong opposition to the Territory Coordinator Legislation and urge the scrutiny committee to recommend to parliament that this be condemned and not passed.

The legislation gives undemocratic influence to a single individual or entity.

As a young doctor training to become a rural generalist, I have deep concerns for how this bill holds the potential to commit injustices against the people the government is supposed to be representative and protective of.

I implore the relevant parties to consider the implications of the bill as it's proposed, and to do the right thing - which, in this instance, is clearly to oppose it fundamentally and unequivocally.

Sincerely,

Dr Jonah Parenteau
