<sup>1</sup> Introduced 1 December 2015, Standing Order 201 provides that on the tabling of a report from a committee which recommends that action be taken by the Government, the Clerk is to refer the report to the relevant Minister(s). Within six months of the report being tabled, the Minister(s) must report to the Assembly what action, if any, the Government proposes to take in relation to each recommendation of the committee. Clause (5) then provides that the Speaker is to provide a report to the Assembly twice each year on the status of Government responses to committee reports.

<sup>2</sup> As indicated above, pursuant to Standing Order 201(1), the responsible Minister(s) must report to the Assembly within six months of the tabling of a report recommending Government action on what action the Government proposes to take.
