2. Has action been taken to ensure compliance with the Scheme's guidelines as recommended by the Auditor-General; if so, what action.

ANSWER

Answered on 10/03/95

1. The amounts outstanding under the Export Marketing Assistance Scheme (EMAS) at 30 June 1994 were :

$3,430.00
$1,142.52
$ 165.00
$ 617.50

2. The following action has been taken to ensure compliance to the Scheme's guidelines.

Follow-up action has been taken to ensure that all clients provide reports on their overseas marketing activities. This action is in accordance with the EMAS guidelines and clients failing to comply will not be provided with any additional assistance.

In addition, a review of the program was carried out and the findings announced on 10 October 1994.
