To whom it concerns

My name is Pam Utting and my [REDACTED] and I want to submit my opposition to VAD. I am 79 and have worked in aged care as a nurse. What grieves me is that so many people hold money and personal comfort as a priority and it is very easy to persuade oneself that someone else's money needs to be used by you. I am watching as the loveliest of old ladies who has been an involved grandma cries everyday because her granddaughter (the surviving recipient) simply doesn't care and never visits. It is very obvious she is hanging out for her inheritance. It is easy for an old person to feel a nuisance for being alive and naive to think abuses will not happen more regularly as time goes on.

Thank you for your attention,
Pam and [REDACTED] Utting
