

WRITTEN QUESTIONS

7th Assembly

18/01/1996

90. Department of Education Excess Computer Equipment

Ms. HICKEY to MINISTER for EDUCATION and TRAINING

QUESTION

1. Does the Department of Education have a process in place for the disposal of excess computer equipment or replaced computer equipment.
2. If the answer to question 1 is yes, is there an order of priority for disposal of computer equipment; if so, what is that order and are schools included in that priority order.
3. Has any computer or computer-related equipment from the Northern Territory Department of education been provided to schools outside the Northern Territory during the following calendar years:
 - (a) 1992;
 - (b) 1993;
 - (c) 1994; and
 - (d) 1995;if so, to which school(s) and what were the reasons for that disposal.

ANSWER

Answered on 14/03/96

1. Yes.
2. No.
3. (a) 1992 : No.
(b) 1993 : Yes.

The Department provided, on loan, a Unisys Master workstation to Greystone High School in New South Wales as part of the evaluation of the NT Computer Based Administration System for Schools (CBASS) by NSW schools.

- (c) 1994 : No.
- (d) 1995 : No.