

FAST FACTS - Three levels of government in Australia

Federal government

Decision makers	Federal Parliament Senate House of Representatives
Leader of Government	Title: Name:
Elections held	Every years (insert number)
Voting	Voluntary or compulsory (circle/highlight)
Number of elected members	Senate House of Representatives
Three responsibilities of the Federal government	1 2 3

State and territory governments

Decision makers in the Northern Territory
Leader of Government	Title: Name:
Elections held	Every years (insert number)
Voting	Voluntary or compulsory (circle/highlight)
The Northern Territory Parliament has one house
Three responsibilities of the Territory government	1 2 3

Local government

Decision makers	Local council, city council, shire council
Leader of Council	Title: Name:
Elections held	Every years (insert number)
Voting	Voluntary or compulsory (circle/highlight)
Three responsibilities of local government	1 2 3

