Subject: Three-year-old preschool trial attendance rates

QUESTION

What is the attendance rate of the three-year-old preschool trial?

ANSWER

In term 1 2022, the attendance rate of children across the 6 three-year-old preschool programs in government schools was 68.3%.

This data will continue to be monitored and will inform the review of the trial of three-year-old preschool, noting that preschool is not compulsory education under the Education Act 2015.
