Subject: Retiring Police Officers undertaking exit interviews

QUESTION

How many police officers have retired for the reporting period and, of those who have retired, how many undertook an exit interview?

ANSWER

Thirty members of the NTPF retired in the reporting period. The figure includes one inability retirement and four invalidity requirements. Twenty-four of the 30 members who retired had an exit interview conversation with their manager. Of those exit conversations, there were four constable 1st class conversations, one constable conversation, one police auxiliary conversation, one police auxiliary 1st class conversation, two senior constable 1st class conversations, five senior constable exit conversations, four sergeant exit conversations, three senior police auxiliary conversations and three senior sergeant conversations. That is the total of 24.
