As most Australian Vocational and Education Training who are all stages of engagement with Indonesia from long term off shore programme delivery to those with an emerging interest were in attendance. Results Achieved:

The maintenance of quality relationships in the bilateral relationship is always a high priority. So the meeting of senior Embassy Officials and Senior Indonesian Government and Education officials is an important outcome. Prime Minister Turnbull, Minister Ciobo, Minister and the Investment Coordinating Board Chair Indonesia Thomas Lembong.

RMIT has the most progressive and successful model of quality engagement. Though restricted to a specialist area of pilot training they acknowledge this model has the greatest potential for successful engagement in any area. Note the programme outline in the document section above.

Recommendations arising:

Charles Darwin University and RMIT to collaborate to share knowledge gained through engagement across their respective networks.

Yours sincerely
