- Caroline Heske, Senior Policy Lawyer, Legal Policy
- Henrik Hartmann, Policy Lawyer, Legal Policy

Question on Notice:

The definition of “contributing jurisdiction” under proposed section 130A does not appear to include the Northern Territory. However, it would appear that it is meant to include the NT, as proposed sections 130G(4)(d), 130P and 130Q all refer to “other contributing jurisdictions”. In addition, proposed section 130J(1) refers to sharing the proceeds between “contributing jurisdictions”.

Please clarify why the NT is not included in the definition of “contributing jurisdiction” and whether this is covered by another provision in the Bill.

Courts Legislation Amendment Bill 2019

Department of the Attorney-General and Justice

- Jenni Daniel-Yee, Director, Legal Policy, Solicitor for the Northern Territory
- Henrik Hartmann, Policy Lawyer, Legal Policy

Question on notice – What, if any, provision will Project Odyssey make to cater for individuals who are unable to, or do not wish to, use electronic methods for the filing and service of documents. This could include people who are not confident using such technology or people in remote areas where reception is erratic.

4. OTHER BUSINESS

Mrs Worden moved and Mr Collins seconded that:

The Committee agree to the request by the Public Health Association of Australia to withdraw their submission to the Inquiry into the Sex Industry Bill 2019.
