I fully support voluntary assisted dying in the NT , and It should be implemented in law . When I am terminally ill , and in immense pain it is my decision to die thanks , not some religious group . Previously the Australian Christian Lobby with other religious groups here have in the NT have disseminated mendacious and false information across the NT to create fear, they should not interfere with my decision . It is my decision not theirs as stated before we should have Voluntary Assisted Dying legislation codified in the NT as they do in other parts of Australia .

Thanks
