Questions Taken on Notice

1. Is the Aboriginal governing group within APO NT still supportive of the implementation of the principles within the Uluru Statement from the Heart?
2. Does APO NT participate in any formal engagement structures such as matters in relation to Closing the Gap? Is there a committee that works with government to implement Closing the Gap?
3. Given that APO NT is the peak body, at what point is APO NT engaged with government to discuss legislative changes?
4. Are you aware of any working groups which are working with government to contribute to legislative changes or comments on proposed changes to legislation?
5. Given the purpose of the proposed Aboriginal Engagement Model, to what extent is it anticipated that it would have the capacity to, or have a role in, reviewing proposed legislation for its impact on First Nations Territorians?

6. If a scrutiny committee process were to be reconsidered, do you have any suggestions as to how it could be improved to facilitate greater input by First Nations Territorians and their representative organisations?
7. In your submission you noted that the development of any advisory body should be developed with consideration to existing and possible future Aboriginal representatives and forums. Can you clarify for the Committee what you mean by this statement?
8. From your experience, can you provide any suggestions as to how consultation fatigue could be managed while still ensuring provision of high quality, culturally appropriate advice on Bills and subordinate legislation?

The witness withdrew

Legislative Assembly of the Northern Territory

Mr Yingiya Mark Guyula MLA: Member for Mulka

Mr John Greatorex: Linguistic and Cultural Interpreter via videoconference.

Tabled Paper

The witnesses withdrew

Department of the Chief Minister and Cabinet

Tom Leeming: Deputy Chief Executive Officer, Policy and Reform

Jean Doherty: Deputy Chief Executive Officer, Strategic and Corporate Services

Shaneen Tilmouth: Acting Executive Director, Office of Aboriginal Affairs

Kylie de Jesus Augusto: Acting Senior Director Cabinet Office and Secretariat Services

Question Taken on Notice

1. How many Bills or changes to NT legislation have been considered by the Northern Territory Executive Council on Aboriginal Affairs? How many Bills has the NT Executive Council actively considered and provided feedback for to the government?

The witnesses withdrew

NT Anti-Discrimination Commission

Josie Short: Director

Questions Taken on Notice

1. Does the Anti-Discrimination Commission currently examine all proposed legislation for inconsistencies with the Anti-Discrimination Act and, if not, how does the Anti-Discrimination Commission prioritise which Acts they look at and what they do not?
2. How many recommendations have been submitted to a Minister after reviewing an Act or regulation?
3. What consideration was given to using any existing established bodies in the Northern Territory to take on the advisory role rather than establishing a new one?
4. How does the Commission manage consultation fatigue when consulting with communities, does the Commission have a function where they head out to communities to consult on certain policies and legislation?
5. Has the Minister's office ever contacted the Anti-Discrimination Commission directly to ask or to say, "We have this proposed legislation. We would like you to examine and provide feedback about this proposed legislation?' Or even a Bill that has been tabled in parliament?

The witness withdrew
