Subject: Impact of Sun Cable entering into supply agreement with another retailer

QUESTION

Sun Cable has publicly been talking about supplying power in to Darwin. In order to do this they would need a retailer. What would the impact be to Jacana be if Sun Cable entered into a supply agreement with another retailer?

ANSWER

This impact cannot be easily quantified as it would depend on the nature of the contract with the retailer in question, the retailer's position in the market and the price they could offer to customers.
